

2) A new pet?

One Sunday morning Olivia goes to Greenwich Park on her bike. She stops next to the lake and watches the boats. Then she hears a noise. 'What's that?' she thinks. She looks around and then she sees a cat in a tree. It's scared. Olivia talks to it and after some time the cat comes to Olivia. It's friendly and it likes her. At 12 o'clock Olivia wants to go home but the cat wants to go with her. It runs after her out of the park. Olivia takes the cat with her. "You can live with me and be my pet!" she says.

The next morning Olivia takes food to the cat in her room, but then her dad comes in and finds them. He isn't happy. This can't be the cat's home.

They take the cat to the vet. The vet says, "I know this cat!" Olivia isn't happy. The vet speaks to a person on the phone.

A few minutes later a girl and her mum come to the vet. "I'm so happy that I've got you again, Shelly!" says the girl and she runs to the cat. When Olivia sees this, she's happy again too.

"Thank you, Olivia! You can come to our house and see Shelly," says the girl.
