

Test yourself

1 The Scottish independence referendum

Use the adjectives below to complete the text. Change them to adverbs where needed.

final clear heavy independent (2x) narrow official confident spectacular traditional Scotland is _____ (1) part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, but some Scottish people feel that Scotland should become _____ (2). In 2014, after many years of campaigning, the people of Scotland _____ (3) voted on becoming _____ (4) from the rest of the UK. The vote was close but it was _____ (5) won by the side which wanted to stay part of the UK. After the referendum, the mood in Scotland seemed to change. At the next general election¹, the Scottish National Party won a _____ (6) large part of the vote (they won in 56 of 59 areas). The SNP wants to take Scotland in a new direction, and there may be another referendum in the future. The _____ (7) Scotland of tartan, haggis, bagpipes and some of the old _____ (8) industries is still there, but a new side of Scotland can now _____ (9) be seen: a modern European country walking _____ (10) into the future.

2 Picture crossword

Complete the crossword with nouns from Unit 2.

¹ general election Parlamentswahl